Welcome Guests! We're glad that you are here! Please fill out a Welcome Visitor card and place in the collection plate. Go by our welcome/information center (one on each side of the room) for materials that will better acquaint you with Lakeview. For your convenience, during our Sunday morning services we do have a volunteer staffed nursery, for children up to age 3. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with young children to use during any service. If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders.

"Do You Now Believe?"

By Oswald Chambers

"Now we believe..." But Jesus asks, "Do you...? Indeed the hour is coming...that you...will leave Me alone" (John 16:31-32). Many Christian workers have left Jesus Christ alone and yet tried to serve Him out of a sense of duty, or because they sense a need as a result of their own discernment. The reason for this is actually the absence of the resurrection life of Jesus. Our soul has gotten out of intimate contact with God by leaning on our own religious understanding (see Proverbs 3:5-6). This is not deliberate sin and there is no punishment attached to it. But once a person realizes how he has hindered his understanding of Jesus Christ, and caused uncertainties, sorrows, and difficulties for himself, it is with shame and remorse that he has to return.

We need to rely on the resurrection life of Jesus on a much deeper level than we do now. We should get in the habit of continually seeking His counsel on everything, instead of making our own commonsense decisions and then asking Him to bless them. He cannot bless them; it is not in His realm to do so, and those decisions are severed from reality. If we do something simply out of a sense of duty, we are trying to live up to a standard that competes with Jesus Christ. We become a prideful, arrogant person, thinking we know what to do in every situation. We have put our sense of duty on the throne of our life, instead of enthroning the resurrection life of Jesus. We are not told to "walk in the light" of our conscience or in the light of a sense of duty, but to "walk in the light as He is in the light..." (1 John 1:7). When we do something out of a sense of duty, it is easy to explain the reasons for our actions to others. But when we do something out of obedience to the Lord, there can be no other explanation— just obedience. That is why a saint can be so easily ridiculed and misunderstood.

Family News

Please welcome our new member, Dorthia Blanks. She's been worshiping with us in years past, but placed membership last Sunday. Her address is:

D B
C C Delano Workday ... Please join us for a day of work, fun, fellowship and great food! On Saturday, April 28th, starting at 9:00am, we will meet at the camp to help get ready for camp season. There are a few jobs already lined up that they need help with, including; moss removal from roofs, yard work, pressure washing, gutter cleaning, carpentry, and much more. Lunch will be provided by the camp for the workers. We'll also be receiving mulch for the flowerbeds and for Marlene's house. Since she has been in the hospital, we need men and women to come out to help distribute this mulch/ground cover to her flowerbed. Thank you in advanced for your hard work!

5th Sunday Singing... April 29th- Please join us for the 5th Sunday singing and fellowship being hosted by Lakeview! Our members are asked to bring sandwiches and or appetizers and we'll provide the drinks. Other congregations will be asked to bring sides and/or desserts. Any questions please see Shavonne for more information.

My deepest gratitude for all the prayers, cards and good wishes for my 2 year health challenge. First breast cancer and then the auto accident. I am ready for your prayers to go to others more needy. I feel healed and thankful to God and my church family.
-Pat Brewer

Community Garden Workday - One of the blessings of my job is interaction with the members of our community through the garden. I wish all of you could see the delight in their eyes as they look at their new garden space and start planning what they'll grow there; as they learn of the many perimeter plants, the herb garden and the orchard that all share in the harvest. The thanks they express to God and to this congregation are heartfelt. They call their mother to tell her that "I have a garden in America!" The community garden truly does make a difference in the lives of these people. Our next community garden work day will be on May 19th. Come out and join us. You really don't have to work hard, but you just might make a friend.

Sermon Summaries

Speaker: Ben Cook

AM: A Fearful Family - Deuteronomy 4:6-10

Parenting with purpose is hard. We have lists, really life hacks, about how to be a good parent. We troubleshoot sleeping issues, bullying, body image, discipline, etc... and yet, most parenting material doesn't actually deal with the core issues that matter most. Parenting without a purpose (a goal) is honestly a pointless thing. Biblical parenting, at it's core, is not about discipline, sleep schedules, food sensitivities, or any other nonsense the bestseller's list will tell you. Biblical parenting begins and ends with instructing our children to honor and revere God.

PM: Question and Answer - Acts 22:16

"Why do the Baptists teach that you do not have to be baptized in order to be saved?" Tonight we will take a look at some of the reasons why Baptists have historically taught this. Notice this is a moving target. While some churches of Christ are softening on their position on baptism, several community churches and Baptist churches are now teaching the essential role for baptism in salvation. Tonight we will hit on the major reasons why churches have objected, and contrast that with several key texts on baptism.

Just a friendly reminder that if you have an event at the church building outside of an inclusive church fellowship event during the week or weekend, the clean up of the kitchen is the responsibility of the coordinator for those activities. Thank you.
