Sermon Summaries

AM Guest Speaker: Chuck Schultheisz,

One Man's Shipwreck is Another Man's Blessing –
Acts 28:7-10

PM Speaker: Ben Cook

Father to Son: Abimelech - Judges 9:1-57

Israel clamored for a king. They begged for Gideon or any of his children, and Abimelech rose to the occasion. But no leader is better than an unqualified leader, as Abimelech's murderous legacy reveals. We will discuss this, and more tonight.

Next week, the world will remember the greatest event in all of human history. That event is the Resurrection of Christ from the realm of the dead. While a basic reading of Scripture will tell you of its significance, many who will gather next weekend don't believe in the Resurrection.

I know this by the fact that, while they may say they love Jesus, they choose to believe that sinful lifestyles are okay with Jesus. They will bear false witness against someone who's goal is to keep the marriage bed undefiled. They believe that the more they sin, the more they demonstrate the mercy of God toward sinners. If fact, what Scripture may call sin, they do not. In living like Jesus never died, they also deny the Resurrection.

Paul talks about people like this in Philippians 3:17-21. Their minds and hearts are focused on earthly things. Contrast to that, people of the resurrection draw on the power of the resurrection, not only to live a life of holiness and purity now, they anticipate the transformation of their earthly bodies into a body that will live eternally. Their desire is to know Christ and the power of His resurrection. They want to suffer with Him and conform to His death, that they may somehow experience the resurrection of the dead.

The resurrection was the key element of the message of the early church. For the disciple that replaced Judas, it was necessary for him to be a witness of the resurrection (Acts 1:22). The Apostles provoked the Jews as they preached the resurrection (4:2). The message of the resurrection caused the Gentiles to ridicule Paul, because it was beyond their understanding (Acts 17:32). I would imagine it even stretched the faith of the disciples, as Jesus led them down from the Mount of Transfiguration (Mark 9:9). They came to understand that God's goal in the work of the cross, was to destroy the power of death, making the way for immortality and the body that would live forever. "And just as we have borne the image of the man made of dust, we will also bear the image of the heavenly man."

This is an exhilarating thought! It makes all the suffering, all the effort worth the cost. If you are wondering and doubting about the resurrection of Jesus, with an open heart and mind, read all the verses that discuss the resurrection of Christ. Compare that with the claims of the skeptics. When the Son of Man rises in your heart, it will show in your life, as well.

Family News

We want to congratulate Josh Bruns and Brandon Malace on their baptisms last week.

Josh is the son of Bob & Julia Bruns.

Brandon and his wife Dena identified with Lakeview in February.

Lakeview Singing... Anyone interested in getting together to sing? We will be singing old and new songs; some we know, and we'll learn the songs we don't know. We'll meet at the church building today at 4pm in room 2. The intention is to learn songs well enough to sing for others who need encouragement, and to bring the family closer together. Everyone is welcome. If you have any questions, please see Tony Pierce.

A Jack & Jill bridal shower for Justin Oden and Kylee Jackson is planned for today, starting at 6pm in room 4. They are registered at Amazon and Target, if you search by their name.

The Elders, Deacons, and Ministry leaders meeting is April 18th at 6pm.

We are currently looking for housing for our summer intern, Dante Huerta. If you can help, please let Ben Cook know.

We have new hands free towel and soap dispensers through-out the building! These products were provided free of charge by the manufacturer and installed, again with no charge, by our supplier, West Coast Paper Products. New tissue dispensers will be installed soon. These upgrades will streamline our product needs and should result in financial savings.

Feeding the Community

Foodbank Update

Thank you to all of our generous givers! In March, food and clothing were given out to 56 households (184 adults and children). Many were surprised that the items were provided by the heartfelt giving of this congregation and not a government agency. They are so thankful the church is doing all of this for the community. Please check the list weekly, as we update the most needed items. Cash donations are always accepted as well.

This week's canned food items:

- Cereal
- Rice
- Crackers
- Peanut Butter
- Small boxes of corn bread

Parents, each classroom (2 yr old - 4th grade) has a donation box, so you can encourage your child in learning sharing and caring for others.

Prayer Requests

Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praises. -James 5:13

- * Susan Gustamante is requesting prayers for Charlie Griggs. She went into the hospital for aneurysm surgery and ended up having a stroke. Please pray for her recovery.
- * Linda Kay Drake is requesting prayers for her friend, Jim Hodges, who will be returning his guide dog due to health and financial issues.
- * Joe Behrent had surgery this week.
- * Ken Wilson is in France, sharing God's Word. Please pray for receptive people and his safety while there and while traveling home in 6-7 weeks.
- * James Monarko passed out and was taken to the hospital this week with low blood pressure. He was released but please continue to pray for him while he is battling throat and mouth cancer. Cards are appreciated.
- * Ann Riley's aunt, Lura, was diagnosed with a brain tumor that is inoperable. The tumor is large and fast growing, which may only give her a few months to live. Please pray that Lura will not have a lot of pain and suffering, and for the rest of the family, that they will be able to accept this and that our God will give them peace and comfort.
