Sermon Summaries

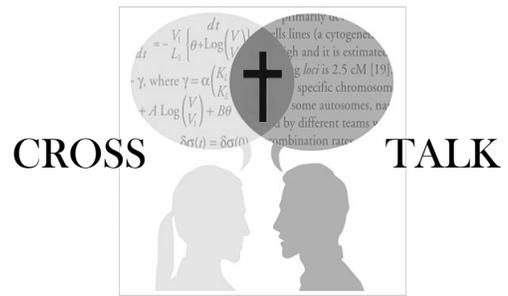

AM Speaker: Dennis Baker

"But because I, Adonai, do not change..." Romans 4:1-8
What a person needs to live a life of peace and contentment is stability and dependability with the people they are connected with. It is obvious there is a great need for that in our world. That need has been filled. Is your life built on a Rock or on sand?

PM Speaker: Ben Cook

From Zero to Hero - Judges 11:1-28

Have you ever wondered how God chooses whom He uses? Jephthah will make you ask. Without a doubt, he had a troubled upbringing. A victim of the choices of his father and his brothers, Jephthah had no advantages in life, and made troubling choices as a result, but God chose him.

Humans have the amazing ability to find solutions to complex problems. The sciences are a wellspring of knowledge that yields answers to the difficulties we face. Experiences can remind us of how we fixed something in the past. However, when it comes to the sin problem, we have very few solutions that go to the core of the issue. Many ignore that we even have a sin problem, but the Bible suggests that not only do we have a sin problem, we are in debt to the Creator. We are flawed and those flaws disable us from being able to fix this problem. Resolving this debt we owe to the Creator is virtually impossible, and in the end, it leads to death.

I say virtually impossible, because the Creator has made a way. He has applied the laws of the universe and has provided a solution. It's a solution that has been determined before the foundation of our world. It is a perfect solution that takes into account all the variables and what-ifs. In essence, the Creator paid the debt Himself, taking on the form of a slave, humbling Himself and becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.

We call the characteristic of God that led to this solution, grace. Grace is a power that combines enduring love, mercy and action. It is not offered because we deserve it. Indeed, humans often chose to rebel against the Creator. We all have sinned and fallen short of the image in which we were created. God offered the solution, and we accept it by faith. James tells us that true faith is active and a response of the heart that is stirred by grace. If we have faith, that faith will be demonstrated by obedience and good works. That is the implementation of the solution. When we accept it by faith, we give our right to self-determination, and accept the path that grace lays out before us.

God proved His authority to rule our lives by bringing Jesus back to life. The body that was beaten and torn and left for dead on the cross, humiliated and disgraced, robbed of dignity and vitality, returned to life as a demonstration of great power. He lives today, and is our Lord, if you will accept His rule.

Christians are people of the resurrection, a new form of life and a new way to live. Today, the day that many set aside to acknowledge in some way the life, death and resurrection of the Christ, can be a day of renewal for God's people. May it be a day of introspection that leads you again and again to embrace the ultimate solution. -Dennis

Family News

The Elders, Deacons, and Ministry leaders meeting is April 18th at 6pm.

We are currently looking for housing for our summer intern, Dante Huerta. If you can help, please let Ben Cook know.

We have new hands free towel and soap dispensers through-out the building! These products were provided free of charge by the manufacturer and installed, again with no charge, by our supplier, West Coast Paper Products. New tissue dispensers will be installed soon. These upgrades will streamline our product needs and should result in financial savings.

A Lost and Found table has been set-up in the SE corner of the auditorium. There are some dishes, several Bibles and assorted other items.

Ladies game night at 4:56pm on May 6th. Please see Katie Towell if you have any questions.

Foodbank Update

Feeding the Community

Thank you to all of our generous givers! In March, food and clothing were given out to 56 households (184 adults and children). Many were surprised that the items were provided by the heartfelt giving of this congregation and not a government agency. They are so thankful the church is doing all of this for the community. Please check the list weekly, as we update the most needed items. Cash donations are always accepted as well.

This week's canned food items:

- Cereal
- Rice
- Crackers
- Peanut Butter
- Small boxes of corn bread

Parents, each classroom (2 yr old - 4th grade) has a donation box, so you can encourage your child in learning sharing and caring for others.
