Worship: Enhanced with Entertainment - Hebrews 13:1-3

The Bible tells us that we should pursue entertainment. In fact, hospitality, (entertaining strangers) is consistently mentioned in the Bible (both old and new testament). It's a requirement of elders. It's a command for every member and yet, we often dismiss these ideas by saying not everyone is an extrovert/has a big house/has extra money for it. If we get this down - learning hospitality - it will affect everything about how we connect as a church and it will transform Sunday mornings. A church committed to hospitality will make transform worship into sweet time of reunion and belonging. Yes! Your worship needs a little entertainment.

"The Messiah: Jesus or Mohammed?" – Matthew 24:23-28

I have been looking forward to hearing what Wissam has to say regarding his faith and his work. It seems that because of the terrorist tragedies carried out by people claiming to be Islamic, to hear from somebody like Wissam is a rare opportunity. In personal preparation, I have been reading up on Islam, including doing some reading from the Koran. The message this evening will focus on Islam's view of Jesus.

So many good things coming up for the Lakeview Family to get involved in. Senior Teen Session at Delano began yesterday, with several camp sessions to follow. One event that I would like to underline today is the Spiritual Growth Conference for Churches in the Northwest. Most have heard of Faithbuilders Northwest. It is sponsored by several different churches, including Lakeview. It's intended to be a meeting place and a time for instruction for churches in the Northwest.

There will be congregations there from Washington, Oregon and Idaho, and perhaps a few other places. It is a retreat and a time to get a shot in the arm, the way that camp does for the young people. Get a schedule and plan to take advantage of the program. The dates are July 6-9th at the Eastvold Auditorium at PLU. One speaker I would like to highlight is Wissam Al-Aethawi. His bio is below.

I am Wissam, 37, an associate minister at Sunset church of Christ and a gospel preacher in Metro Detroit, MI. I was born and raised to a Sunni Muslim family in Baghdad, Iraq. I rejected Islam into atheism in the mid-1990's, found a copy of the Bible in '97, believed in '98 and it took me another 12 years before I could find someone to baptize me in May 2010.

A graduate of the University of Baghdad, I worked as a civil engineer for 8 years after finishing my service as a Republican Guard. Then a Christian woman in the Amish country of Pennsylvania invited me to come to the U.S. I came in April 2011. Nine months later, I went to Sunset International Bible Institute in Lubbock, TX. I finished school and moved to Michigan by early 2014. I like reading, writing, and doing Bible studies. I teach in our church, at my house and other places on a regular basis. I dream of starting an Arab-speaking congregation of the Lord's church in Dearborn.

Wissam will be speaking at Lakeview on Sunday, July 9th during the morning assembly.

Point Defiance Picnic.. Mark your calendars. In 2 weeks (July 9th) We are planning to have another Sunday afternoon picnic at the Point Defiance Ft. Nisqually Shelter. Like last year, we have the shelter reserved for all afternoon. It is a no-host picnic, so bring a sack lunch for your family, some games, and makes plans to take some time to explore Point Defiance.

Faith Builders is almost here! It begins on July 6th at 9am and ends on the 8th. It is being held at PLU and has many keynote and class speakers. There is a schedule of classes and their times online at www.faithbuildersnw.com. You can pre-register there as well. If you have any questions about it, please see Dennis Baker.

Mountain States Children's Home has change cans for you to take home with you. This is a very special cause because they do so much work for children, who need it. Please consider taking a can home and filling it up with change to donate to the MSCH.

To my Church Family, Thank you for all your support with cards, calls, and the abundance of food during the passing of my beloved husband, Sam. He loved this church family and so do I. I appreciate you for your love and concern for me. Keep me and our family in your prayers. Love to you all,
