30-Day Challenge

The month of August marks our next 30-Day Challenge. These challenges are important because they have the ability to help us build good habits of Bible reading. This next challenge covers the section beginning with the book of Ezra and ending with the Song of Solomon. Some may think that summer is too busy to take on a Bible reading challenge, but this is the best time, because the habits of genuine faith should occur during times of busyness and times of calm.

Yes, it's going to be a busy season, but how much more refreshing and uplifting shall we feel when at the beginning of our day, we can find the Psalmist inspiring us to stay fresh, or in the middle of our pursuits, Nehemiah's attitude instructs us to not give in to distractions and distractors but stay focused. Or yet still, at the end of the day, we come home weary but still take note that our Promise Keeper who has never failed a promise leaves wise King Solomon to admonish "Fear God and keep his commandment," of which Nehemiah said "one who does them shall live by them!" hmm, that's exciting! Gives me the shivers!

The challenge begins on August 1st and continues through August 31st. It will include reading between 9/10 chapters a day for 31 days. It's daunting and challenging to stay faithful to the task, but I believe we can do it and be successful. Please join Brother Dennis and I as we undertake this challenge. There are audio resources and other study aides available to help with this quest. Please let Dennis or I know if you have any questions. As you read, in addition to any new insights you glean, keep track of the references to Jesus and His messianic mission. We will get together for a fellowship in September to share a meal and discuss what we have learned.

Thanks, Christopher...

Sermon Summaries

Speaker: Dennis Baker

AM: "Living By Faith; Wait For It..." Hebrews 11:8-16
We live in a society filled with people who want it all, now, today, or even yesterday. Because this is true, we have trouble with a basic truth about faith; Some of what we receive by faith will not be experienced until we leave this life. As Paul says, "but if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with patience Romans 8:25).

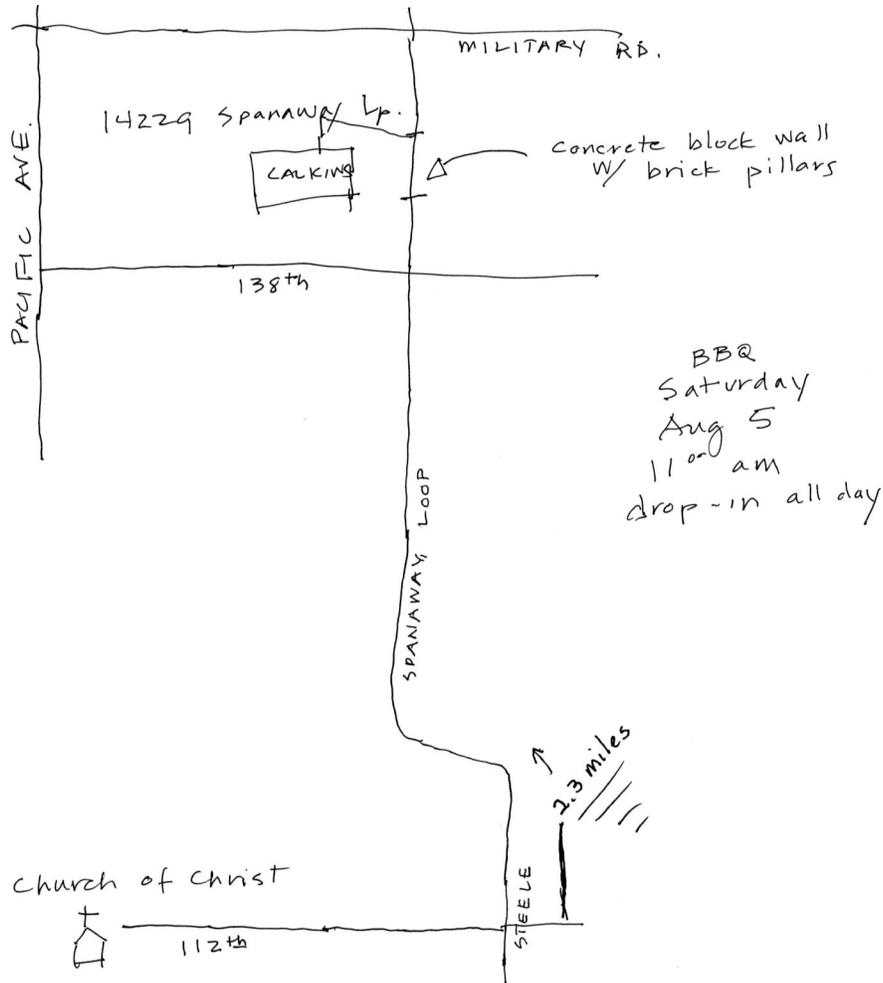

PM: The Right to Judge - Nahum 2:1-13
Judgment is something that is very distasteful to most people. Our individuality and independent nature repels anything that looks like control. Many reject the idea of a God who judges, because they feel it contradicts a God who loves. But God is love. He is also just. In His justice, He acts out of His Character, according to a standard and on behalf of His people.
