Welcome Guests!

We're glad that you are here! Please fill out a Welcome Visitor card and place in the collection plate. Go by our welcome/information center (one on each side of the room) for materials that will better acquaint you with Lakeview.

For your convenience, during our Sunday morning services we do have a volunteer staffed nursery, for children up to age 3. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with young children to use during any service.

If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders.

Have you “renounced the hidden things of shame” in your life—the things that your sense of honor or pride will not allow to come into the light? You can easily hide them. Is there a thought in your heart about anyone that you would not like to be brought into the light? Then renounce it as soon as it comes to mind— renounce everything in its entirety until there is no hidden dishonesty or craftiness about you at all. Envy, jealousy, and strife don’t necessarily arise from your old nature of sin, but from the flesh which was used for these kinds of things in the past (see Romans 6:19 and 1 Peter 4:1-3). You must maintain continual watchfulness so that nothing arises in your life that would cause you shame.

“...not walking in craftiness...” (2 Corinthians 4:2). This means not resorting to something simply to make your own point. This is a terrible trap. You know that God will allow you to work in only one way—the way of truth. Then be careful never to catch people through the other way—the way of deceit. If you act deceitfully, God’s blight and ruin will be upon you. What may be craftiness for you, may not be for others— God has called you to a higher standard. Never dull your sense of being your utmost for His highest— your best for His glory. For you, doing certain things would mean craftiness coming into your life for a purpose other than what is the highest and best, and it would dull the motivation that God has given you. Many people have turned back because they are afraid to look at things from God’s perspective. The greatest spiritual crisis comes when a person has to move a little farther on in his faith than the beliefs he has already accepted.

The Man and The Man - Genesis 4:3-10

This, the final relationship we will explore in Genesis, is the one between us. What was Cain's problem? We almost think it's too obvious, murder, but there's more going on here than murder. Instead of helping his brother know God, or at least enjoying his brother's success, Cain was consumed with jealousy and hate, and ultimately killed Abel. When confronted by God, he dismissed the whole episode with Am I my brother's keeper? The answer, of course, is a resounding YES. We will explore this more together.

The 5 Signs of Openness To The Gospel – Luke 19:1-10

It might be thought that in these times, people are not open to hearing the gospel. The truth is, people are always looking for truth, for something better. The media narrative about Christianity is negative, but people are able to put that in the background if they see an accurate portrayal of the living Christ (in His people) and their openness is connected with a message of truth.

Thank You! After 27 days in the hospital with 13 days being in the ICU, our daughter, Desi, is back at home. She still has a long recovery ahead of her but she is very excited to be home. We don't know what the future holds for her but we know prayer will continue to be a big part of her recovery. Winda and I are so thankful for the calls, cards, and most of all, prayers. In this past week she has made miraculous progress, beyond her doctor's expectations, and we know prayer has been a big part. Thank you all on behalf of our family. Lakeview Youth Group

Growing in Faith, Enduring Through Challenges, Leaving a Legacy

Corn Maze— We will be joining youth groups from the area at Bob's Corn Maze in Snohomish, Oct. 1st. Cost is $10 for the maze and bring some extra for treats. Make sure to dress for the weather. We are looking for some chaperones, if you are interested, please see Brandon York.

Youth Group Retreat— Retreat will cost $35/teen. This will mostly cover food, lodging, and some retreat supplies. Chaperones do not need to pay. We will be utilizing two houses at Ocean Shores. One as a meeting house/bunk house for the girls, and another as a bunk house for the guys. (Thanks to the Gallagher family for letting us use their house!). We will pull out of Lakeview at 5:30pm on Friday, and we will grab a bite to eat on our way out (this is built in to the cost of the trip). We will return to Lakeview at 2pm on Sunday. Please bring: toiletries, bibles, extra changes of clothes (the beach is sandy), and some favorite board games/card games. We will have some great lessons, activities, and some free time together.

We are doing this as a youth group - so it's just "us," but there's plenty of room for friends! If you've got a friend you've been wanting to invite, DO IT! This will be a great way for us to get to know them better.

Woodinville YR— is Nov. 10-12th. Mark your calendars!
