“Do not judge, so that you won’t be judged.” In today’s socio-political climate, this is a favorite text of the religious left. Do not judge the attitudes and actions of others so you won’t be judged about your attitudes and actions. We cannot judge another because we don’t know what they have been through. This is not the point Jesus was trying to make. Notice, I referenced only part of the verse. “Do not judge, so that you won’t be judged. For with the judgment you use, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye but don’t notice the log in your own eye?” (Matthew 7:1-3).

In the sermon on the mount, Jesus draws a bold line between the old life and the new. That means we have a new standard for all we do. This does not mean we have the right to exert authority over those who are not citizens of the kingdom. When we judge others, we usually use our own standard for good and evil. Jesus illustrates His point with a comical reference to a beam in the eye of one trying to remove the speck from another. Disciples are not given the role of judge. We are to focus on our own lives and our own failures. When we make judgements and cut others out, we cut off ourselves with the same sword.

The disciple only has righteousness based on the association of faith in Christ. We come to that association based on our acceptance of the work of Christ on the cross and the incorporation of God’s Word into our thinking. We agree to live in community based on these principles in the fellowship known as the church. There may be times when we have to uphold the standards of the Christian community and cut ties of fellowship. That only takes place after a process of spiritual conflict management (Matthew 18:15-20). Our casual relationships are based on the dynamic of unconditional love. The purpose of this type of relationship is it allows the best of who we are to come to the surface. When the church operates from this perspective, all people will know that we are His disciples.

Welcome Guests!

We’re glad that you are here! We have a staffed nursery available during Sunday morning service, for children up to age 3, if that is something that will be helpful to you. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with small children to use during any service.

We hope that you experience the presence of God in our assembly. If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders. Please fill out a visitor card, found in the back of our songbooks and drop it into the basket when it is passed by. Thank you!

Sermon Summary

AM Speaker: Ben Cook

Faith in the Margins - 2 Corinthians 4:7-12

You and I are living in the middle of a seismic change in our country. For as long as we have been alive (you and I), the country has always believed that the church had the market cornered on morality and virtue. Even people who wouldn’t be bothered with all the rules of church typically thought church a good thing, but no more. The Christian faith is moving to the margins.

Today, the average American no longer thinks of Christians as moral people. We are backwards, superstitious, malevolent, bigoted, and hateful. This perception is being fueled by the antics of a few truly disturbing groups, but it is working. This morning, we will kick off our series on Perseverance as we talk about faith in the margins.

PM Speaker: Dennis Baker

Don’t Use That Kind of Language Around Me – 2 Cor.4:7-18

Is this sermon about the dangers of having a potty-mouth? No. If we have to have that talk, this would be a sermon on Matthew 15:18. This is a message about change. Sometimes, change is a bad word to us. We are afraid of it, don’t understand it and we’re comfortable the way we are; but change is the basic truth of life. When we stop changing physically, we start dying. The same is true spiritually.

Dear Lakeview family, I so enjoyed my time in Tacoma at the end of Mayo and into June. Your love for the Lord and His family is so evident in the way your welcome visitors and show hospitality and care to one another. I'm so very thankful for the way you have embraced Sean and Kelsey, and how you encourage them and give them opportunities to continue growing spiritually. A parent couldn't ask for more! I also thoroughly enjoyed your Bible classes and worship services. They were interesting, stimulating, and encouraging. I pray our Lord will continue to bless your congregation as you are blessing others. In Christian love, Dena Foutch
