Justification and sanctification are two processes that must complete their purposes if we are to be mature servants of the Master. Justification can be seen as the process of salvation. We are made right by the gift of God, freely given on the cross. We cannot earn this and do not merit it. Being justified is a legal status, not a moral status. That is why our neighbors mock Christians. We say we are righteous, thinking that is a moral status, but often our actions are not righteous. That is why Paul reminds us that, “no one is righteous.” Becoming a Christian simply means you are on solid ground to build a good life. If you don’t build right, your building will collapse (1 Corinthians 3:15). Sanctification is the building process. Through prayer, study, application, correction all under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the follower of Jesus goes through this process. If any of those actions are left out, the building will be weak. Being sanctified means I understand my purpose and I work towards those goals. “Press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of you.”

Always keeping an eye on where you came from. Always remembering that you have a place at the table of the King. Always allowing the Spirit to convict you of your areas of weakness.

There is always going to be a battle where justification and sanctification meet. Quoting Jesus, Oswald Chambers says, “There is always a tremendous battle before sanctification is realized— something within us pushing with resentment against the demands of Christ. When the Holy Spirit begins to show us what sanctification means, the struggle starts immediately.” (If anyone comes to Me and does not hate...his own life...he cannot be My disciple, Luke 14:26). This is why we struggle. It is good we struggle. Never give up that struggle.

Welcome Guests!

We're glad that you are here! We have a staffed nursery available during Sunday morning service, for children up to age 3, if that is something that will be helpful to you. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with small children to use during any service.

We hope that you experience the presence of God in our assembly. If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders. Please fill out a visitor card, found in the back of our songbooks and drop it into the basket when it is passed by. Thank you!

Sermon Summary

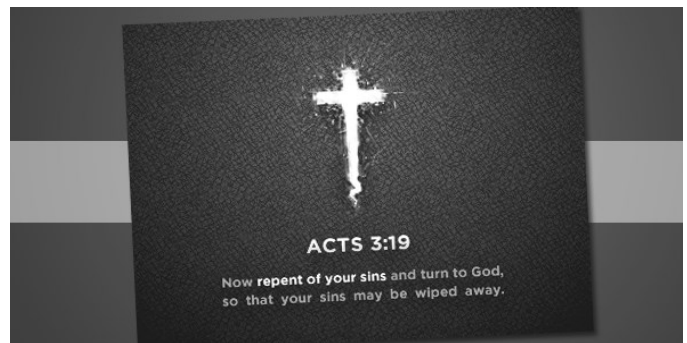

Speaker: Dennis Baker

AM: Perseverance Can Be Astonishing – 1 Peter 4:1-6

It is not easy to live in this world when you have the convictions of faith. Culture clamors and shouts to be heard. It distracts and deceives to gain acceptance. We have to dig in or give in. Peter's message to us is to “Dig in deep!”

PM: Gifts you Can Give Your Children – Acts 2:42-47

What happens when parents give their kids things they don't need? The kids grow up. (Insert awkward pause). Then what? They operate according to the virtues that you have planted. There is no magical time when kids get it. They get what you give them. Godly character is the gift. Over the next several Sunday evenings we will discover several of these essential gifts.
