Information is a good thing to have. We use information to make informed decisions, draw conclusions, and strengthen our positions and points of views. We also use information to strengthen and affirm things we have come to believe. What happens when each daily bombardment of information seems to render the believer discouraged, despondent or even shake our foundations and cause us to question our faith?

About a week ago my wife sent me an article about studies being conducted by some scholars to prove that there is no such thing as free will. The writer of the article hailed these new efforts as scientific efforts to challenge the lie that is the existence of free will. Citing a court where an accused criminal had his charges dismissed because the accused's lawyer successfully argued that the guilty party's brain made him commit the offense not out of his free will. Never mind that this writer notes that these studies are not conclusive and many questions raised by the studies have not been adequately addressed or lack sufficient evidence.

How does the Christian of today fend off these attempts to erode and dismantle all that is good and godly? Casting our vote and voicing our opinions, these are all great civil acts to engage in as citizens of our great country. God's people must show the lost the way to God as well. The ill prepared Christian is like ill prepared teacher or the soldier that is not ready for battle, they cannot provide answers in season. For these and many other challenges that we face in our modern world, we need to immerse ourselves in the word of God. This will enrich us, strengthen and firm up our faith, broaden our knowledge and equip us with the love of God teaching us the good works God has prepared for us to walk in them.

The 30-Day Challenge reading opportunities are a quest to cultivate a lifestyle of readiness to answer when questions about our faith are raised. In this effort, we echo the Psalmist, "The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple..."

You should be working on the first five books of the Old Testament (The Books of Moses). Reading schedules are available on the 30-Day Challenge Information Board

Welcome Guests!

We're glad that you are here! We have a staffed nursery available during Sunday morning service, for children up to age 3, if that is something that will be helpful to you. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with small children to use during any service.

We hope that you experience the presence of God in our assembly. If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders. Please fill out a visitor card, found in the back of our songbooks and drop it into the basket when it is passed by. Thank you!

AM: The Mystery of Godliness: God's Plan and My Path – 1 Timothy 4:1-10

Godliness is the application of God's plan to the human experience. Before a person become a Christian she or he lives according to their own plan. When Christ's gift becomes our possession, things change; unless you decide to hold on to ideas of the past.

PM: Gifts To Give Your Children # 3 – Contentment

We have so much and there is so much potential within us. Sometimes people accept mediocrity because their view of their potential in Christ is blocked by what everyone else has or is doing. When we learn to see ourselves through God's eyes, we begin the journey toward contentment.

Acclaiming Christ

Serving at the Tacoma Rescue Mission on the 3rd Friday of each month. To join us, meet at the Lakeview building at 5:30 pm.

Growing in Faith, Enduring Through Challenges, Leaving a Legacy

The kids and adults on the Mission trip will return Monday night around 6pm. They will notify parents when they are leaving Woodinville and heading to Lakeview. So far, it seems like they have had a great time. We are proud of all their hard work.

Summer has gone by so fast! Dante, our summer intern, will be leaving Aug 10th. If you see him before then, please thank him for his work with our kids. We appreciate him and hate to see him go. Good luck next year!!

As summer winds down, some of our teens are leaving for college. Please get with them and say goodbye. Our school year is quickly approaching, so be on the lookout for upcoming events and dates. If you have any questions, see CJ Mayo!
