This week I have spent time in two passages that focus on the importance of being involved in the Kingdom of God on earth. While both passages are addressed to the nation of Israel, the point carries over to present. We are to be active in the fellowship and work of the Church. While many say, “Jesus, yes, but not the church,” that is not a biblical principle. The church is the place for worship, equipping, and practicing. The Hebrews’ writer warns us against developing the habit of not meeting (Hebrews 10:24-25). It is as if the writer knows what was written in the Old Testament to God’s people of old.

Some people have asked, “How did God’s people get so far away from the standard of living?” The basic answer is they neglected the house of God. In Nehemiah’s time, they realized that this was the reason for the loss of home and status as a nation. Before the catastrophe of exile ever took place, they were neglecting the house of God. The worship, learning, and equipping that took place there was not important.

Maybe people had good reason to not be involved, and maybe not. Maybe people today have a good reason, and maybe not. Sometimes it is relational conflict and sometimes it is laziness. Some situations may call for a discussion and some may require you to take a stand and confront the issue. If there are problems, we are to be committed to finding solutions. The foundational belief has to be, I am an active and faithful member of the Church that belongs to Christ.

In Nehemiah’s time, as they were getting back to God’s way of doing things, they made many vows or commitments. It was their statements of faith to keep their part of the covenant. God had done much and will do much. It is for them, (and us), to commit to the things we read in scripture as the way to be faithful to God. After personally committing to a lifestyle of faith, it is important to make a commitment to the community of faith. We should make the same commitment that God’s people made as recorded in Nehemiah 10:39, which says, “For the Israelites and the Levites are to bring the contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are kept and where the priests who minister are, along with the gatekeepers and singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.”

Welcome Guests!

We’re glad that you are here! We have a staffed nursery available during Sunday morning service, for children up to age 3, if that is something that will be helpful to you. There is also a training room, located next to the sound room, for parents with small children to use during any service.

We hope that you experience the presence of God in our assembly. If you have questions, feel free to approach one of our ushers, ministers, or elders. Please fill out a visitor card, found in the back of our songbooks and drop it into the basket when it is passed by. Thank you!

Sermon Summaries

AM Speaker: Dennis Baker - What They Say About You When You Are Gone Matters Most – 2 Chronicles 29:1-11

The author of the books of the Kings and the Chronicles would either begin or end the accounts of the lives of the Kings with a simple summary statement. Of King Ahaz, he wrote, “He did not do what was right in the Lord’s sight like his ancestor, David.” (2 Chronicles 28:1) Of Hezekiah, he says something different. Which would you rather have written about you? What will be written?

PM Speaker: Ben Cook - Question and Answer

We will take the next several Sunday evenings to revisit our Question and Answer series from May. I have several questions still in queue from last time, and have received a lot of positive feedback about this format for Sunday evening. The question we will look at tonight is:

“Why isn’t it more common for Greek definitions of words in the NT to be taught in Bible classes so that when passages like 1 Cor.13:1-7 get read at weddings we (as Christians) understand that the “love” being talked about is not the romantic love between a husband and wife? This distinction would also help Jesus’ conversation with Peter in John 21:15-17 to make more sense to us.”

Family News

Back To School Backpacks... Our annual effort to fill backpacks has begun! Please drop off donations in the box near the Welcome Counter by Aug. 24th. Contact Randy Montgomery if you have questions.

We are collecting: Backpacks

Prayer Requests

Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praises.

James 5:13

- The Oden's are asking we keep Justin and his fiancé, Kylee, in our prayers as they start wedding plans. Also, that they always keep God in the center of their lives.
- LeAnn Glasman is asking that we continue to pray for her step-father, Bob, as he continues to heal.
- LindaKay Drake is asking we continue to pray for Campbell, his ear infection is only getting worse. If medication doesn't work, he will need surgery. She also asks that we continue to pray for the outcome of her Botox injections.
- Nancy Armenta's brother, Billy Castillo, is in hospice. Please pray for peace.
- Marilyn Likens is requesting prayers for Brian Wicklund, who is dealing with leukemia and financial problems.

Phone numbers are still the same.

Just a Reminder...

The Men's Worship calendar and the Family calendar will no longer be put in the bulletins at the beginning of the month. There is a stack of each in the back under the picture board. Please take one!

There is a baby high chair in coat room, free for the taking.

Lakeview Youth Group

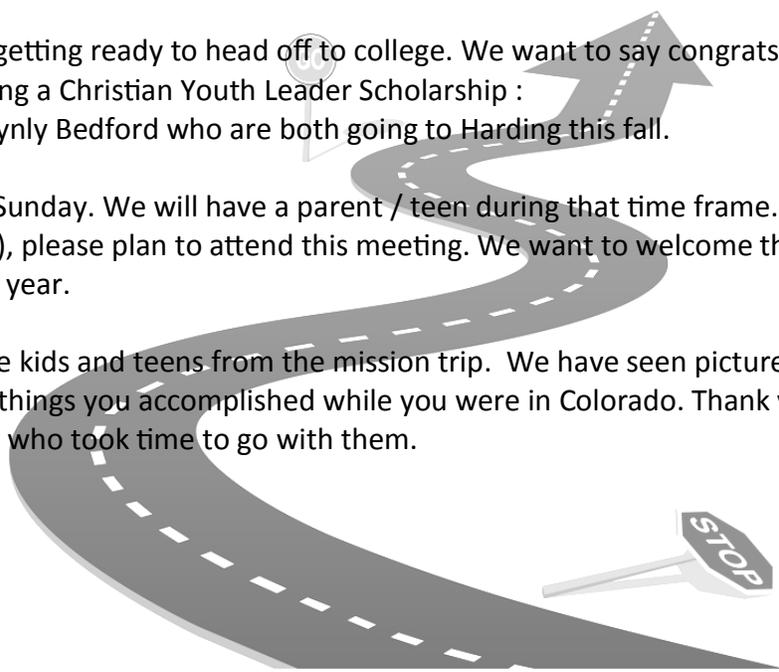

Growing in Faith, Enduring Through Challenges, Leaving a Legacy

Some of our teens are getting ready to head off to college. We want to say congrats to these teens for their hard work and for getting a Christian Youth Leader Scholarship : Sarah Gallagher and Brynly Bedford who are both going to Harding this fall.

Sept 11th– Promotion Sunday. We will have a parent / teen during that time frame. Current and future teens (and your parent), please plan to attend this meeting. We want to welcome the new kids and make plans for the upcoming year.

Welcome back to all the kids and teens from the mission trip. We have seen pictures floating around and heard stories of all the things you accomplished while you were in Colorado. Thank you for all of your hard work, and to the adults who took time to go with them.
