James 1:19-26

¹⁹My dearly loved brothers, understand this: Everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger, ²⁰for man's anger does not accomplish God's righteousness. ²¹Therefore, ridding yourselves of all moral filth and evil, humbly receive the implanted word, which is able to save you.

²²But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. ²³Because if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his own face in a mirror. ²⁴For he looks at himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. ²⁵But the one who looks intently into the perfect law of freedom and perseveres in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but one who does good works—this person will be blessed in what he does.

²⁶If anyone thinks he is religious without controlling his tongue, then his religion is useless and he deceives himself.

James 3:1-12

Not many should become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive a stricter judgment, ²for we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a mature man who is also able to control his whole body.

³Now when we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we also guide the whole animal. ⁴And consider ships: Though very large and driven by fierce winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵So too, though the tongue is a small part of the body, it boasts great things. Consider how large a forest a small fire ignites. ⁶And the tongue is a fire. The tongue, a world of unrighteousness, is placed among the parts of our bodies. It pollutes the whole body, sets the course of life on fire, and is set on fire by hell.

⁷Every sea creature, reptile, bird, or animal is tamed and has been tamed by man, ⁸but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹We praise our Lord and Father with it, and we curse men who are made in God's likeness with it. ¹⁰Praising and cursing come out of the same mouth. My brothers, these things should not be this way. ¹¹Does a spring pour out sweet and bitter water from the same opening? ¹²Can a fig tree produce olives, my brothers, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a saltwater spring yield fresh water.

GODS' Faithful Word of Encouragement

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
God is the subject of all eternity and we can spend a lifetime seeking to know Him more. As Paul said to the Philippians, "I want to know Christ" (Phil. 3:10, NIV). The most mature saints are often the ones who realize how little they know of God. They more they read, the more they exclaim, "Oh the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!" (Romans 11:33).						1
