- James 2:14-26

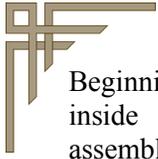

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can his faith save him?

¹⁵ If a brother or sister is without clothes and lacks daily food ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but you don't give them what the body needs, what good is it? ¹⁷ In the same way faith, if it doesn't have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸ But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you faith from my works. ¹⁹ You believe that God is one; you do well. The demons also believe—and they shudder.

²⁰ Foolish man! Are you willing to learn that faith without works is useless? ²¹ Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? ²² You see that faith was active together with his works, and by works, faith was perfected. ²³ So the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness, and he was called God's friend. ²⁴ You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵ And in the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by a different route? ²⁶ For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Speaker: Brent McFarland

Beginning on August 9th, we will resume meeting inside of the building for Sunday morning assemblies. Services will start at 11:00 A.M. and we want to take a moment to explain how that will be organized.

There will be just one open entry area; that will be the main entrance at the roundabout. All other doors will be locked and used only for exit.

A temperature check will be done. Then you will receive an individual communion serving and have access to masks and hand sanitizer as you have need. Unless you have a medical reason, masks will be required to be worn.

Ushers will be assisting everyone to the seating area in the auditorium. We have removed rows of chairs to provide distanced seating from front to back. To maintain social distancing within rows we ask that you sit in family / friend groups, keeping three chairs between you and the next group. Ushers can help if you have questions.

There will be an area designated to give, if you choose to give in person rather than on-line or via U.S. mail; communion trays and offering trays will not be passed.

Restrooms will be open for use.

Indoor classes are being considered, but at this time we will continue with Zoom classes. Live streaming will continue for those who are not able to attend inside gatherings.

If you have any questions please contact one of the Shepherds, their information is in this bulletin and in the directory.

We look forward to seeing you all!
