

It's a Foot Thing

JOHN 13:1-35 It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

<sup>2</sup> The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; <sup>4</sup> so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. <sup>5</sup> After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

<sup>6</sup> He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

<sup>8</sup> "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Mentoring the Next Generation

And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 2 Timothy 2:2

Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

<sup>9</sup> “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered, “Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.” <sup>11</sup> For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

<sup>12</sup> When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. <sup>13</sup> “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. <sup>14</sup> Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. <sup>15</sup> I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. <sup>16</sup> Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup> Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

<sup>18</sup> “I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfill this passage of Scripture: ‘He who shared my bread has turned against me.’

<sup>19</sup> “I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am who I am. <sup>20</sup> Very truly I tell you, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup> After he had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified, “Very truly I tell you, one of you is going to betray me.”

<sup>22</sup> His disciples stared at one another, at a loss to know which of them he meant. <sup>23</sup> One of them, the disciple whom Jesus loved, was reclining next to him. <sup>24</sup> Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, “Ask him which one he means.”

<sup>25</sup> Leaning back against Jesus, he asked him, “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, “It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish.” Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup> As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.

So Jesus told him, “What you are about to do, do quickly.” <sup>28</sup> But no one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him. <sup>29</sup> Since Judas had charge of the money, some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the festival, or to give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.

<sup>31</sup> When he was gone, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified and God is glorified in him. <sup>32</sup> If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

<sup>33</sup> “My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

<sup>34</sup> “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

FAMILY NEWS

Calvin & Katie Freid are expecting a girl! Due to the on-going limits on social gatherings we will not have in-person shower, but there will be a box in the foyer to gather gifts. Or, Katie is registered at Amazon and you can have gifts shipped directly to her home. Girl clothing and diapers would also be appreciated.

“You help us stretch our food budget just enough.”

Hearing comments like the one above, or finding the food donation barrel overflowing makes us especially grateful for all that you do to keep this pantry operation, so we offer a big THANK YOU!

Your generous support has provided over 340 bags of groceries to our community families, despite a year filled with social distancing and other challenges.

Food Pantry Needs: Crackers, small bags of rice, spaghetti sauce, and canned fruit.

Donations may be left in the barrel, located in the coat room of the main building, or dropped off at the food pantry on the 2nd or 4th Monday of each month, between 11:00 - 2:00. Please remember that (due to liability issues) we can't give out food past the expiration date.

The Cradle Roll Class will resume meeting on Sunday, January 24th! Class will only meet on Sundays and all teachers will be wearing masks. We will disinfect tables, chairs, toys, and surfaces before and after each class. We will also use our non-toxic disinfectant during class time to clean toys after a child uses one, before another child uses that toy.

We hope to see you in class. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Ann Riley at 253.224.8960 or Sharon Henton at 253.752.5737

Thank you and God Bless,
Ann & Sharon

LAKEVIEW INTERNET EVANGELISM MINISTRY UPDATE

Five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been privately donated to fund advertising of the World English Institute's TACOMA CAMPAIGN to the Puget Sound Area.

Designed to attract local individuals interested in a free English course using the Bible, ten people have already been attracted since October 2020. The Shepherds endorse this new ministry of our congregation and encourage members to become aware of this new opportunity to serve the Lord.

Teachers are needed. Links to videos which describe this ministry are below.
