Being His Hands & Feet

“that I may KNOW HIM and the POWER OF HIS RESURRECTION, and may SHARE HIS SUFFERINGS, BECOMING LIKE HIM in his death” Philippians 3:10

Know Jesus. Feel Jesus. Be Like Jesus.

GUILT LEADS TO CONFESSION

¹⁴ Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ¹⁵“When a person commits a trespass and sins by straying unintentionally from the regulations about the LORD’s holy things, then he must bring his penalty for guilt to the LORD, a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels according to the standard of the sanctuary shekel, for a guilt offering. ¹⁶And whatever holy thing he violated he must restore and must add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf with the guilt-offering ram and he will be forgiven. ¹⁷“If a person sins and violates any of the LORD’s commandments that must not be violated (although he did not know it at the time, but later realizes he is guilty), then he will bear his punishment for iniquity ¹⁸and must bring a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels, for a guilt offering to the priest. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his error that he committed (although he himself had not known it) and he will be forgiven. ¹⁹It is a guilt offering; he was surely guilty before the LORD. Leviticus 5:14-19

Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ²“When a person sins and commits a trespass against the LORD by deceiving his fellow citizen in regard to something held in trust, or a pledge, or something stolen, or by extorting something from his fellow citizen, ³or has found something lost and denies it and swears falsely concerning any one of the things that someone might do to sin— ⁴when it happens that he sins and he is found guilty then he must return whatever he had stolen, or whatever he had extorted, or the thing that he had held in trust, or the lost thing that he had found, ⁵or anything about which he swears falsely. He must restore it in full and add one-fifth to it; he must give it to its owner when he is found guilty. ⁶Then he must bring his guilt offering to the LORD, a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels, for a guilt offering to the priest. ⁷So the priest will make atonement on his behalf before the LORD and he will be forgiven for whatever he has done to become guilty.” Leviticus 6:1-7

This is the law of the guilt offering. It is most holy. ²In the place where they slaughter the burnt offering they must slaughter the guilt offering, and the officiating priest must splash the blood against the altar’s sides. ³Then the one making the offering must present all its fat: the fatty tail, the fat covering the entrails, ⁴the two kidneys and the fat on their sinews, and the protruding lobe on the liver (which he must remove along with the kidneys). ⁵Then the priest must offer them up in smoke on the altar as a gift to the LORD. It is a guilt offering. ⁶Any male among the priests may eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy. ⁷The law is the same for the sin offering and the guilt offering; it belongs to the priest who makes atonement with it.

Leviticus 7:1-7

⁵ Then the LORD spoke to Moses: ⁶“Tell the Israelites, ‘When a man or a woman commits any sin that people commit, thereby breaking faith with the LORD, and that person is found guilty, ⁷then he must confess his sin that he has committed and must make full reparation, add one-fifth to it, and give it to whomever he wronged. ⁸But if the individual has no close relative to whom reparation can be made for the wrong, the reparation for the wrong must be paid to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement by which atonement is made for him. Numbers 5:5-8
