Being His Hands & Feet

“that I may KNOW HIM and the POWER OF HIS RESURRECTION, and may SHARE HIS SUFFERINGS, BECOMING LIKE HIM in his death” Philippians 3:10

Know Jesus. Feel Jesus. Be Like Jesus.

Genesis 39 Now Joseph had been brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, had bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there. ²The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man, and he was in the house of his Egyptian master. ³His master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD caused all that he did to succeed in his hands. ⁴So Joseph found favor in his sight and attended him, and he made him overseer of his house and put him in charge of all that he had. ⁵From the time that he made him overseer in his house and over all that he had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had, in house and field. ⁶So he left all that he had in Joseph's charge, and because of him he had no concern about anything but the food he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. ⁷And after a time his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, “Lie with me.” ⁸But he refused and said to his master's wife, “Behold, because of me my master has no concern about anything in the house, and he has put everything that he has in my charge. ⁹He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?” ¹⁰And as she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not listen to her, to lie beside her or to be with her.

¹¹ But one day, when he went into the house to do his work and none of the men of the house was there in the house, ¹² she caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me.” But he left his garment in her hand and fled and got out of the house. ¹³ And as soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled out of the house, ¹⁴ she called to the men of her household and said to them, “See, he has brought among us a Hebrew to laugh at us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice. ¹⁵ And as soon as he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried out, he left his garment beside me and fled and got out of the house.” ¹⁶ Then she laid up his garment by her until his master came home, ¹⁷ and she told him the same story, saying, “The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought among us, came in to me to laugh at me. ¹⁸ But as soon as I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment beside me and fled out of the house.”

¹⁹ As soon as his master heard the words that his wife spoke to him, “This is the way your servant treated me,” his anger was kindled. ²⁰ And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined, and he was there in prison. ²¹ But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him steadfast love and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. ²² And the keeper of the prison put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever was done there, he was the one who did it. ²³ The keeper of the prison paid no attention to anything that was in Joseph's charge, because the LORD was with him. And whatever he did, the LORD made it succeed.

The Message of the Old Testament Fall 2023

Class Details

Class Title: The Message of the Old Testament

Dates and Times: Mondays, 6:00-8:00pm; September 11-November 13, 2023

Location: Balcony classroom, Southwest Church of Christ

Teacher: Brent McFarland (Lakeview Church of Christ, Tacoma, WA)

Cost: $30 recommended donation

Course Description: This course covers the essential message of the Old Testament scriptures, giving special attention to the themes of creation, fall, and redemption through Israel and pointing forward to the coming of Christ. The course also provides students with a better appreciation for the literary and historical and theological context of the Old Testament that will enhance their personal spiritual development.

Class Structure & Required Textbook

At each class meeting we will sing a few hymns that connect with the daily topic, study the scriptures using an interactive lecture and discussion format, and participate in a guided time of prayer. Coffee and snacks are provided at the breaks. Every participant receives a NWSD notebook and pen.

Students should have an ESV Study Bible and a copy of George G. Guthrie, Read the Bible For Life: Your Guide for Understanding and Living God's Word (2011).

Cost & Registration

As noted above, there is no fee for D3 courses in the NWSD. Instead, we ask that participants prayerfully consider making a donation to support the ministry of the NWSD each time you take a discipleship course. Registration is required so we can set up chairs appropriately. Please visit the NWSD website to register.

*The NWSD is a ministry of the Southwest Church of Christ in Tigard, Oregon.

Brent and the AIMers will be attending this 8 week course, each Monday. If you would like more information or want to attend with them, please talk to Brent.
