Matthew 3 In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ²“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” ³For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight.’” ⁴Now John wore a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region about the Jordan were going out to him, ⁶and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. ⁹And do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father,’ for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ¹¹“I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹²His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

2024 SPRING ADULT CLASS - beginning March 3
Join us as we explore the Law and Grace. Using Galatians and then Ephesians, Paul helps us to understand the LAW. We will discover the differences between living for the law and living by the spirit.

THE YOUNG ADULT CLASS will continue to meet in room 4, and begin a study of Spiritual Disciplines.

TEN REASONS TO ATTEND BIBLE CLASS

1. It affords systematic Bible study. This enables the student to cover a complete topic or book of the Bible systematically.
2. It provides a deeper understanding. The wise man said, "Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in abundance of counselors, there is victory." (Prov. 11:14). When studying with others, I hear comments that enrich my own understanding or explains more accurately that which I didn't understand.
3. It helps us avoid error. Studying the Bible with others helps me to be aware of various false doctrines and how to expose them. Eph. 4:11-16 tells us that teachers were among the gifts given to the church in order that we would "No longer be children tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness and deceitful scheming."
4. Bible classes help provide a good balance of subject matter, helping us to be well-rounded in our knowledge.
5. It allows us the opportunity to offer comments on a Biblical subject which may be helpful to others.
6. For children and teens, the teaching of parents is reinforced by other teachers.
7. Students see their peers learning and accepting the same Biblical principles they have been taught at home.
8. It shows love and respect for others. Your presence and comments will be an encouragement to them, as they are to you.
9. It helps the church grow and be united. Feeding upon the word can only result in growth and edification (Eph. 4:15). It helps the bond between Christians grow even stronger.
10. The more we are exposed to Biblical teaching, the more we allow that seed to be planted in our hearts. When the word is implanted regularly, it is much more likely that we will obey it.

We all need the nourishment that Bible classes provide!

31 	Matthew 28 ⁵ But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you." ⁸ So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."
